

2. No leaves to bring in bills or motions to introduce resolutions shall be granted, without the unanimous consent of the members present.

3. Reports from all committees shall be received and placed at the bottom of the calender of bills, &c., in the order in which they are presented, except revenue reports.

4. After all reports are presented, the several committees shall be, and hereby are discharged from the further consideration of all subjects not reported on by them, respectively.

5. Bills, resolutions and reports shall be called in the following order:

1st. Revenue bills, resolutions and reports received from the committee on Ways and Means.

2nd. Special orders of the day according to their dates, as such.

3rd. All other bills, resolutions, reports and orders, lying on the clerk's table, in the order of time in which they were introduced, or received from the Senate;

Mr. Calvert moved to lay said order on the table;

Determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Hollyday, of Kent,

Ordered, That no member, from this time to the end of the session, shall be allowed to speak more than once on any amendment or bill, and when he does speak, he shall not do so more than five minutes.

Mr. Worthington, of Anne Arundel, submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer pay to the order of Benjamin Hopkins, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury the sum of sixty-five dollars and fifty cents, the sum allowed to him by the committee of Claims for keeping the furnace of the House of Delegates and for other services.

Which was read the first and by a special order the second time, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Gallagher, submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That I. Nevitt Steele, Deputy Attorney General for Baltimore county, be and he hereby is authorised and required to enter the judgment satisfied in the case of the State against William D. Ball, James Blair, John R. Gwynn, Thomas Wildey and George Gordon Belt, upon payment of the principal sum for which said judgment was rendered, deducting therefrom the usual commissions of the sheriff and without any charge of interest; provided, the same be paid within sixty days after the passage of this resolution;

Which was read.